

The Top 10 List:

Why You Can and Should be a Chapter Officer

You CAN because....

- #10

Resources Abound!

Instructions for Officers of Local Chapters and training modules are on the P.E.O. website.
- #9

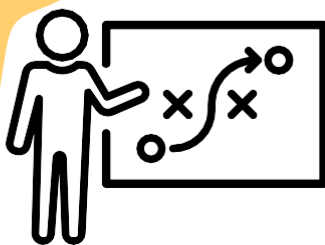

Conduct Transition Meeting

Your predecessor will meet with you to review supplies, share tips and answer questions.
- #8

Your Sisters Can Help

Many of your local chapter sisters have held your office and can pitch in.
- #7

S/P/D Officers Coach You

S/P/D officers are very accessible, including during officer workshops and periodic official visits.

You SHOULD because...

#6

Give the gift of the COI

Initiating new sisters is a special way to share your love of the Sisterhood. And you can read it!

#5

Deepen your knowledge of chapter workings

Becoming more familiar with how the chapter works can help streamline meetings and allow for more sister time.

#4

Build your leadership skills

Sharpen your leadership skills for personal growth and enrichment.

#3

Find your purpose

Helping your chapter can increase your sense of accomplishment and provide many personal benefits.

#2

Give back

Agreeing to be an officer can help you repay all the benefits you've received from membership.

#1

You REALLY REALLY should because...

Fulfill your pledge

You promised to give a due share of your time and energy to the Sisterhood.
